Profile Summary

Full-stack developer specializing in scalable web applications and concurrent backend systems using Go, Next.js, and PostgreSQL. Built production-grade SaaS, AI-powered platforms, and real-world client applications with strong focus on system design, performance optimization, and developer tooling.

Experience

Freelance Full-Stack Developer May 2026 – June 2026

ArtMeister – Deshbandhu College Art Club, Delhi University Remote

- Architected and deployed a full-stack platform in Go + PostgreSQL with auth, event workflows, artist management, and role-based access control; integrated AWS S3 for scalable media storage.
- Built an interactive frontend using Next.js, GSAP, and Zustand with optimized client-side state management.

Projects

Medusa GitHub

- Concurrent multi-camera incident monitoring in Go — each stream runs in its own goroutine, supporting webcam, local video, and RTSP via config file.
- Pluggable detection pipeline spawning isolated Python (YOLOv8) processes per camera; full CLI for pipeline control, log querying, and CSV export.

MediCall Live Demo | GitHub

- Full-stack doctor appointment platform with real-time video consultations, credit-based booking, and scheduling logic that eliminated double-booking conflicts.
- Stack: Next.js, Prisma ORM, Clerk Auth, Neon PostgreSQL, Vonage API.

Finance Genie Live Demo | GitHub

- AI-powered financial assistant for expense tracking, categorization, and budget insights using Gemini to generate personalized spending recommendations from transaction history.
- Stack: Next.js Server Actions, Prisma ORM, PostgreSQL, Gemini API.

Sensai Live Demo | GitHub

- AI mock interview assistant with real-time voice interaction, role-specific question generation, and post-session performance analysis.
- Stack: Next.js Server Actions, Prisma ORM, PostgreSQL, Gemini API.
